European Club Association congratulates Michel Platini on his re-election as UEFA President

Michel Platini was today re-elected as UEFA President during the XXXV UEFA Ordinary Congress in Paris, France.

The European Club Association welcomes Michel Platini's re-election and would like to warmly congratulate him for this success.

Commenting on Michel Platini's re-election, ECA Chairman Karl-Heinz Rummenigge stated:

"During his first term of office, President Platini has set a clear vision for the future of European football. In particular, we are very pleased with the support and understanding he has shown towards European club football. We feel privileged to have such a supportive partner and we look forward to a continued excellent collaboration in the future."

The European Club Association wishes Michel Platini all the best for the upcoming four years as UEFA President.
