Foreword

---

For the European Club Association (ECA), the FIFA World Cup 2010™ was an important event for clubs from all over the world released players, including many ECA member clubs for this competition<sup>1</sup>.

In accordance with the Memorandum of Understanding between ECA and FIFA/UEFA, and referring to FIFA Circulars nos. 1186, 1191 and 1235, the FIFA Executive Committee, for the first time, has decided to allocate an amount of USD 40 million from the benefits of the FIFA World Cup 2010 South Africa™ to Member Associations. These Member Associations received the money and distributed the money to the relevant clubs who has released the players, contributing to the success of this competition.

The purpose of this research is to show the overall compensation of players released by clubs member of an UEFA National Association. The research is based on the official FIFA List as provided to ECA sent on the 18th of January 2011.

<sup>1</sup> The European Club Association has conducted in June 2010 a full research showing the overall situation of players released for the FIFA World Cup 2010 by clubs all over the world. For more information, please visit the website on : <http://www.ecaeurope.com/Default.aspx?id=1111820>
